

When I want to feel comfortable, I wear...

11. Choose two of the prompts below to describe two situations. Use the useful language box.

EXAMPLE:

Ann is waiting for her first job interview.

Ann is wearing a purple blouse, black trousers and her favourite glasses. She looks very professional, but she is nervous. She feels like it's the most stressful moment of her life. She also feels uncomfortable because she's wearing new shoes.

- a) Amy is going hiking.
- b) It's Josh's wedding today.
- c) Kelly is shopping for a new car.
- d) Chris is having dinner with his best friend.
- e) Paula is in bed. She's not going to work today.

USEFUL LANGUAGE

She/he is wearing...

She/he looks (like)...

Her/his clothes look (like)...

She/he feels (like)...

12. Describe your situations to the other students. Try to say all you can remember without using your notes.